

SEVEN TEACHERS SHY IN M'CRACKEN

Superintendent Billington at Loss to Supply

Has Little Hope of Supplying Deficiency by the August Examination.

EIGHT SUCCESSFUL IN JULY

McCracken county cannot supply her schools with teachers, and instructors will have to be brought from other counties. Supt. S. J.
Billington announced today that he lacked seven of having a sufficient number of teachers to fill his schools, and he has little confidence in the last examinations for certificates in August to supply the deficiency.

Should seven applicants pass, they would not be eligible to teach, for cause they did not attend the institute, as is provided by law. The result will be that Superintendent Billington will have to take teachers from elsewhere, being eligible by holding a certificate and showing that they attended an institute in some other county.

"I shall do this," stated Supt.
Billington. "In order to give Mc-Cracken county applicants the preference and advantage, I shall say if any one is successful in examinations held in August which will be the last, I shall let him teach if he attends an institute in some other county."

Successful Applicants.

Out of a class of eleven examined last week eight were successful.
They are Claude Shumway, Pearl Miles, J. W. Hughes, Annabel Acker, Bertie Nicholson, Joe Lamb, Gracie Hughes and Clifford Hovey.

Jap Toner Ends His Boy.

When Jap Toner, secretary of the Charity club, yesterday advertised for a good boy of about 16 years who had no people and desired to be adopted, he found him almost in a jiffy and in the hospital, too. Louis Cathie is his name and he will be adopted by the mother of Dr. J. T.
Gilbert. Dr. Gilbert's mother and two sisters reside on a spacious farm in Logan county, and want a young boy to do light chores. Young Cathie came from Danville, Tenn. is an orphan and for several weeks washed dishes on the steamer Dick Fowler. He was taken ill and forced to go to Riverdale hospital. He will go to Logan county to live on the farm as soon as he is able to the hospital.

Little Damage at Night Fire.

Fire discovered in the boiler room of the Fowler-Wolfe Sheet Metal Works last night, did little damage. Mr. Wolfe was upstairs and noticed the light and ran in the room. Before the fire department arrived Mr. Wolfe fought the fire with buckets of water and held it in check. The loss is estimated at $100. The plant is running today before being checked the fire caught a shed of the H. A. Potter Supply company, and water was thrown on some piping, but no damage resulted.

Baby Left in Basket.

An infant boy, several days old, was left on the front porch of the Home of the Friendless Tuesday night and found by the matron the following morning. He was lying in a basket neatly wrapped with quilting, and in a healthy condition. No note was left in the basket. The Home has no nursery nor facilities for caring for infants, and desires to find a place for the boy in some private family.

Concrete Plant Machinery.

Five hundred dollars' worth of new machinery has been received for Judge R. T. Lightfoot's concrete sewer pipe plant on South Sixth street. Delay in starting up in the new location, in the Dogwood factory, was caused by the absence of water connection, which was put in last week.

Humane Officer.

Master Kelley and Columbus Gear colored, charged with tying a black to a cow's neck and causing her to fall and break her back, were tried by Magistrate Emery yesterday afternoon and the decision held no until more evidence can be secured by the defense this afternoon. Humane Officer Jap Toner had the warrant issued.

Only thirteen Pass Consular Exams.
Washington, July 25.—The state department today made public the results of the recent examination of the candidates for appointment for the consular service, for which 54 men were designated. Thirty-eight presented for examination, and only 13 passed, receiving the required mark of 80.

WEATHER FORECAST.

STORMY.

Partly cloudy and probably local thunder-storms tonight and Friday
ture yesterday 100; lowest, 78.

HEART PIERCED.

Chicago, July 25.—Mrs.
Emmanuel Bloom was stabbed to death early this morning in her home. Her husband told the police he returned home after midnight and found his wife lying in a pool of blood. A carving knife, which had been found through her hair, was found on a table fifteen feet away. Bloom disappeared and was found in-conscious in the yard. He said he jumped from the porch to avoid his life. He is now in a hospital, semi-conscious, under police guard.

NO MILITARY.

Bahama, July 25.—Governor Johnson is on the iron ranges today investigating the conditions and says there is nothing apparent, which would justify him in calling out troops. Appeal was made by strikers to the governor to enforce the saloon laws.

FRENCH RIOT.

Perpignan, France, July 25.— Many civilians were injured when the police prevented a riot here today. It is feared a bloody fight between citizens and the Twenty-fourth colonial regiment may occur any time.
Much feeling exists between the citizens and soldiers.

APPOINTMENTS.

Oyster Bay, July 25.—President Roosevelt made these appointments today: James G.
Halley, Kentucky, to be secretary to the legation in Copenhagen, Denmark; Norman Hutchinson, California, secretary to the legation and consul general in Roumania, Servia.

WOMAN HANGS.

Moscow, July 25.—Another execution of a woman Terrorist took place today, when Mme.
Frankina, accused of several attempted assassinations, was hanged here. Efforts were made to induce her to ask clemency, but she refused.

PLEADED GUILTY.

New York, July 25.—Chester H. Rayson, former teller of the Windsor Trust company, from which he stole $90,000, today pleaded guilty to an indictment, charging grand larceny, in the first degree, and was remanded for sentence. The maximum penalty is ten years.

KOSHER RIOT.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 25.— Smashing windows, and hurling the entire stock of kosher meat deposited into the street, and soaking the meat with oil, after severely beating many persons, who sought to buy meat in defiance of their wishes, mobs of thousands of women swept the Jewish quarters today. They were finally routed by a large force of police, who made many arrests. Increase in the prices caused the trouble.

MURDERER HANGED.

Toronto, Pa., July 25.— Charles Johnson was hanged in the jail yard here today for the murder of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Bigler Johnson, and her niece.

IRISH STRIKE.

Belfast, Ireland, July 25.— With 200 policemen on the verge of joining a strike they are trying to quell, because they have been denied additional pay for extra work, and the strikers at same time resorting to violence, Belfast faces a crisis today. Many efforts are on a strike and today are attempting to stop all traffic.

FATHER BEHIND.

Berlin, July 25.—Through the death of Father Erasmus Herrling, 70 years old, the world has lost its greatest linguist.
Father Herrling was master of 33 modern and ancient languages.

GEN. TYLER SAYS HE HAS HIS DATA

Will Secure Affidavits From Southern Refugees

Intends To Clinch Point That Memphis Matron Was a Union Sympathizer.

VETERAN IS EAGER IN SEARCH.

General H. A. Tyler, who is in Paducah to vindicate himself in a stand taken in a controversy regarding the alleged banishment of Mrs.
T. J. Latham, now of Memphis, from Paducah. In August, 1865, by Union soldiers, is slowly fortifying himself behind a breastwork of affidavits and statements from some of the oldest residents of the city, who remember details of the banishment. He is eager in his work. "Yes sir, I have been successful in securing the desired information," he declared today,
"and when I finish my work, shall have some interesting facts to relate.
I have been busy seeing old residents, and have secured the statements of several who know about the affair, and the evidence in my favor is overwhelming. I contend that Mrs. T. J.
Latham was not banished from Paducah, but was a Union sympathizer, and I am preparing to prove it.
There are five or six of the entire number of women banished and I feel assured that I will secure a statement from each to clear me out."

General Tyler secured a statement today from one resident who was a boy and with his mother when she was banished. He remembers, he says of those in the party and General Tyler says that this man's statement bears him out in his contention.

I shall be in your city for some time yet, and shall finish my work before I leave," he said. "I shall have every statement drawn up in affidavit form, and will settle this controversy once and for all, and to the satisfaction of myself and friends."

THEO. PETERS FINED FOR SELLING LIQUOR

Theophilus Peters, charged with selling liquor without a license, at 15 cents and 10 cents, was fined $25 and costs in each of two cases against him in the police court this morning. Several witnesses introduced by the prosecution swore that the liquid, known as "Pale Ale," and manufactured by the Terre Haute Brewing company, was intoxicating.
Some were not positive as to its intoxicating qualities, but declared that it was beer, judging from the taste. Peters' attorneys this morning introduced several witnesses who swore they drank several bottles of the liquid and felt no stimulating effects. Peters' attorneys will appeal the case.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS MAYFIELD TRIP IS OFF.

Owing to the fact that the Mayfield Water and Light company had trouble with its water supply last night, the Paducah Knights of Pythias today, that it would be impossible to put on the degree work with stereopticon, so the contemplated trip to Mayfield was postponed. A telephone message from Mayfield to The Sun this afternoon, said the water was turned on this morning at 10 o'clock and there is plenty.

NEARLY THREE HUNDRED HOGSHEADS OF TOBACCO

Good tobacco sales were held yesterday by A. N. Veal, salesman for the Dark Tobacco Growers' association. Many farmers were present and all expressed satisfaction with the sales. Large sold from $6 to $8 a hogshead. About 250 hogsheads of good leaf were sold and the price ranged from $8 to $13. Of these 100 hogsheads sold between $10 and $13.
The tobacco was of many excellent grades, and buyers bid sharply.

MASONS AND ODD FELLOWS HOLD MEETING AT LOWES

Saturday at Lowes a big picnic and barbecue will be given by the Mason and Odd Fellows. Prominent speakers of the order and others from western Kentucky will make speeches.
Representatives from the Dark Tobacco Growers' association will speak on crop conditions. Preparations have been made for an immense crowd. Probably many from this city will attend.

OH, YES, BRYAN IS WILLING.

Mother, may I go n to swim?
Yes, my darling daughter!

Hang your clothes on a hickory limb,
But don't go near the water.

Governor Properly Attends to Obsequies of Louisville Machine

Louisville, Ky., July 25 (Special).
The new members of the general council, appointed by Governor Buckham to take the places of those recently deposed by judgment of the court of appeals, were announced today. John D. Orter, a commissioner, will be president of the upper board and Harry Wagon, head of the Central Methodist Publishing company, will be president of the lower board. One fact, causing comment, is that there are four undertakers among the new councilmen, and a maker of monuments.

End of Haywood Case at Last in Sight—Judge Instructs Jury

Dodge, July 25.—Clarence Darrow closed his address for the defense in the Haywood case this morning and Senator Hiram filed the last shot for the prosecution. The judge's charge to the jury, which is short, is ready and the jury probably will return by noon tomorrow. The general opinion is there will be a disagreement.

Paducahans Named on Commission To Tennessee Home Coming Week

Frankfort, Ky., July 25.—(Special).
—Upon request of the management of the Tennessee Home coming to be held at Nashville, September 23 to 27, Governor Buckham has appointed 12

MUCH COAL IS SHIPPED SOUTH FROM THE MINES

Illinois Central Railroad is Kept Busy Handling the Enormous Output

Kentucky, especially the western portion, is pouring train after train load of coal into the south, and business at this season was never better.
Illinois Central railroad officials declare that the amount of coal being shipped and handled by the road, is beyond their expectations. The Graham mines are putting out 150 tons of coal a day. The Laverne mines are putting out about 100 cars per day, and other mines are working in proportion. The cars have to be moved, and it is taxing officials to their utmost to handle the business.
This morning there were four freight sections of the morning Fulton-Louisville accommodation passenger train. Each section will bring back a coal train. Because of this big business six firemen were promoted to conductors this week, and more will doubtless follow.

SHREWD HUCKSTERS BUY UP ALL Scarce Vegetables and Fix Prices to Suit

Hucksters have been giving Mar-ketmaster Hell trouble the past few weeks in their endeavor to corner certain vegetables. The law prohibits hucksters buying until after 7 o'clock but some meet the wagons early in the morning and see what vegetables were scarce, and then as soon as possible buy all the vegetables of a limited quantity, and hoist the price.

Corn has been scarce and the mar-ketmaster has kept a close eye on this product. Beans, apples, and peaches, have also been scarce and the price has been well maintained. It is difficult for the marketmaster to watch all the hucksters at once, but he has about broken up the practice of cornering goods.

ENGINEER PROSTRATED RUNNING INTO CAIRO

Cairo, Ill., July 25.—J. I. Fisher, an Illinois Central engineer, was found unconscious at the throttle of his engine between here and Mounds, having been overcome by heat. His fireman noticed that the train was running past crossings without slowing up, and later noticed that Fisher was about to fall out of the cab window. He immediately stopped the train, and Fisher was placed aboard another engine and brought to Cairo as fast as possible. Doctors tonight say that he will recover.

Taken the world over, the annual average rainfall is 60 inches.

NO INJUNCTION IN BOYLE CASE

Mayor's Revocation of License
Good in Circuit Court

Attorneys Pray Appeal and See Out Writ of Prohibition for Police Judge.

IS RESTRAINED TWENTY DAYS.

Attorneys for Hugh Boyle saloon keeper at Fourth and Kentucky avenue, whose injunction to restrain Mayor Yelverton from revoking his license, was dissolved this morning by Judge Reed, in the circuit court, are making a desperate effort to save his license for him, and prevent his prosecution for retelling liquor without a license, warrants, charging him with which, have been sworn out by Chief of Police Collins.

A writ of prohibition directed to Judge Cross, to prevent his hearing the case of selling without a license and an appeal to the court of appeals from Judge Reed's decision in the injunction proceedings, are both being sued out today, and meanwhile Judge Reed is continuing the temporary restraining order 20 days, to allow counsel time to get the appeal before one of the justices of the court of appeals at chambers.

Accepting as true Mayor Yelverton's affidavit and answer that he revoked Boyle's license 60 seconds after his conviction in police court of Sunday selling, Judge Reed said he could not well restrain the mayor from doing something he had already done, since the appeal was not perfected and the temporary restraining order issued until an hour after the revocation. Judge Reed held valid the ordinance, authorizing the mayor to revoke saloon licenses and denied the petitioner's contention that service of notice of intention to apply for an injunction was sufficient to restrain the mayor under the circumstances.

All these points will be brought before the court of appeals at the hearing. Attorneys Hal Corbett and En-selyne Graves, for Boyle, say they are certain to establish the unconstitutionality of the ordinance, authorizing the mayor to revoke saloon licenses.

As soon as Judge Reed announced his decision they prayed an appeal and asked for continuance of the restraining order for 20 days which was granted. The writ of prohibition will be sued out in the circuit court.

PICNIC PLANNED FOR CHILDREN OF THE POOR

There is nothing that the average boy or girl enjoys more than a picnic in the woods, and no matter how warm the day is it is an easy matter to collect a crowd of young folks for an outing in the woods. The Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Childs, appreciating the keen pleasure of such outings for the youngsters who have little opportunity for enjoying them have made it an annual practice to take out three or four hundred children every year, and with the assistance of the people who take an interest in their charity work have always made great success of this feature.
This year will be no exception to the general rule, and the picnic will be given August 6. As the weather is warm, and soliciting is a hard task, Mrs. Childs, who attends to this feature of the work, has requested The Sun to ask all those who will donate something for the picnic to telephone her or Mr. Childs at the mission at once.

FUNERAL OF W. S. HAYS HELD THIS AFTERNOON

The funeral of Col. Will S. Hays was conducted at the First Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock this afternoon. This was made necessary on account of the fact that the Second Presbyterian church, of which Col.
Hays was a member, is closed for repairs. The services were conducted by the Rev. Charles R. Hemphill and Dr. J. Spruille Lyons. The unusual program includes two of the songs composed by Col. Hays that he had always requested to be sung at his funeral, both are familiar to the churches of various denominations in the city, having been sung for many years since their composition by quartets and choirs.

The songs, "Save One Afloat Crown for Me" and "Enter in," were rendered by a special choir, and Prof. George Selby, a life-long friend of Col. Hays has charge of the music.
The burial was in Cave Hill cemetery.

Quaintness of the Hermit Kingdom

Korea, called by outsiders the "Hermit Kingdom," is known to its own people as Chosen, meaning "morning calm" or "morning freshness."

It comprises a peninsula of Asia, northeast of China, 600 miles long, 125 miles broad and 125,000 square miles in area. The population is estimated at 16,000,000, of whom 10,000,000 are Chinese, 4,000,000 are Japanese, and 2,000,000 are Koreans.

The State College of Kentucky

Lexington, Ky.

THE State College of Kentucky offers the following courses, namely: Agricultural, Mechanical Engineering, Mining Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Normal School, Classical and Scientific courses, each of which extends over four years and leads to the Bachelor's degree. Each course is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty, consisting of professors, assistant professors and instructors, numbers over fifty.

County appointees receive free tuition, privilege of residence in dormitories, fuel and lights and traveling expenses, if they remain ten consecutive months, or one collegiate year.

The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern. Military Science is fully provided for as required by congress.

Graduates in the several courses of study readily find employment with liberal remuneration. The total number of matriculates last year was 901. Each department has a specialist at its head, with the necessary number of assistants.

Summer schools are provided for in Pedagogy, Engineering and instruction in Science and the Liberal Arts.

The young women find an excellent home, with board and lodging, in Patterson Hall, which is well equipped with all modern conveniences, bath rooms, hall for physical culture, at $1.00 per week. All the courses of study in the college are open to young women upon identical conditions with those applying to males.

The attendance upon the Normal School in connection with the Department of Education last year more than doubled that of any preceding year.

Three new buildings, namely, one for the department of Education, one for Agricultural Science and a Library Hall, are in process of erection and will be completed early in the collegiate year.

less oppression and robbery of the poor.

Koreans are passionately devoted to flowers, although comparatively few have the means to indulge their taste in this direction.

The land is generously blessed with animal life. There are no oxen, however, and Koreans never use milk or any of its products. The work is done by bullocks, which usually attain a magnificent development. Without this bullock the Korean would be helpless, and this fact is cited to prove that the Koreans have never been a nomadic people.

Korean produce is so cheap, but none in that country is so poor as not to own at least one dog. No family would be complete without a dog.

Koreans, unlike the Japanese, love a good fire when the chill blasts of winter sweep across the barren country. This fondness for warmth is the cause of that barren appearance which is often has been referred to by travelers. The Koreans keep their houses out to the quick to provide fuel, while the chimney-laps let their forests grow and silver.

Every one smokes in Korea. Both men and women use pipes with a long metal bowl and stems so long that generally assistants must be asked to light them. As they are inveterate smokers the greater part of the Korean's day is consumed in smoking and lighting pipes.

The Koreans are essentially nomadic people. They come from a stock entirely different from their two great neighbors, China the meridian nation, and Japan the flaming people. They are undoubtedly of Korean origin with a strong admixture of Chinese and Manchu blood.

The Koreans are a peaceful and hospitable people, though they have fought well and bravely when they have had to fight. They seem to lack the strain of fighting Malay blood which is so strongly marked in the composition of the warlike Japanese.

Seoul, the capital, is an ancient walled city built in a network of hills, eighteen miles from the sea. It is fortified in the strongest fashion by a system of ditches that would drive any but an Atlantic army gasping into the sea. It is poor in appearance but rich in life. On autumn nights light and other lights of prey frequently conduct the night of way with isolated travelers in the streets. The view across the rooftops of Seoul is one of appalling monotony. All chimneys empty into the narrow streets about two feet from the ground, and at eventide when the cool winds start their fires the pall of smoke and ash that settles upon the town would make a London fog look like a section of the cerulean sky. The one advantage of the smoke and ash in Seoul is its ability to suppress the odor which rises up from its dreadful thoroughfares.

Seoul is the home of mourners. Indeed it may be said literally with the sobriety that "the mourners go down the streets." When a Korean is bereaved by the death of a close relative he is entitled to mourn his loss for a period of three years, and during this time he is not expected to perform any labor. As the average Korean professes of lofty scorn for labor at any time, it is quite to be expected that the period of weep is accepted with resignation, if not embraced with joy by nearly all.

The wall surrounding Seoul, from which it is separated by a small replica of the great Chinese wall. The traveler is welcomed at the west gate, but should unfortunate chance delay him until the sun has disappeared and a big bell booms its warning note he must prepare to camp in the open until the morning brings the gates open back to his day. Barring an occasional court pageant, Seoul is singularly free from sights to interest the tourist.

A Seoul bakeshop is a triumph of cleanliness and altogether a unique institution. Of course there is an oven. The flour is dampened and kneaded into dough. This mass is spread upon a block and two lusty men proceed to treat it to a poundage process with heavy wooden mauls. While this is being done an elderly assistant dips his hands into water and performs the somewhat hazardous feat of keeping the dough moist by patting it between the blows of the mauls. The oven crowns the work.

John Geron, proprietor of an elevator situated on the Sandusky division of the Erie Railroad, about eight miles north of this city, has been a great sufferer for the past two years from a cancer on his tongue. He has spent hundreds of dollars in treatment, but could not secure any relief. Recently he has implored surgeons to cut off his tongue, but all to whom the request was made refused to perform the operation.

Knowing that he would have to die soon or later of the cancer, Geron decided to be his own surgeon. After he put a keen edge on his pocket-knife, he pulled his tongue as far out of his mouth as possible and gave it a slash. It was cleanly severed near the base. While he succeeded in freeing himself of the cancer he also deprived himself of a very necessary adjunct to his talkative powers. He wrote a note saying he would have an artificial tongue hooked on to the stub remaining.

Serious Handicap
"Somebody ought to talk to Young fellow. He'll never get on in politics if he keeps on antagonizing the powers that be."

"But he doesn't. He is careful to do all that is required of him."

"That's all well, but it won't help him while his wife persists in copying the boss' wife's new dresses."—Baltimore American.

All construction work on the Manila Railroad company's new line is performed by Filipino labor, under the supervision of American engineers and superintendents. ## BLUE GRASS SEED CORNER EFFECTED

Paris, Ky., Syndicate Has

DEFLECTION TO JUDGE ROBBINS.

Paris, Ky., July 25.—A syndicate composed of J. S. Wilson, E. F. Spears and Sons, of this city, and D. S. Gay, of Winchester, Ky., today closed a deal by which they became the possessors of about 700,000 bushels of Kentucky bluegrass seed, practically all there is in the country, with the exception of about 10,000 bushels held by one party.

It is estimated it will take $500,000 to finance the deal. The seed is to be delivered by August 1, the market opening on that date. The annual demand averages about 500,000 bushels, a large part of which goes to Europe.

Wants Robbins Removed.

Cincinnati, Ky., July 25.—It is said here that the first step to be taken in the case of Judge Robbins, who is to be tried at a special term of court here, beginning on Monday next, will be the filing of an affidavit executed by the defendant in an effort to secure Special Judge Joseph E. Robbins, appointed by the governor, off the bench.

Judge Robbins presided during the last trial of the case, the judgment in which was reversed by the court of appeals. There was some question of whether his first commission did not entitle him to continue as a special judge, but this was removed by his again being appointed. It is not known upon what ground the effort to remove the special judge is to be based. Should Judge Robbins vacate the bench, a trial of the case at this time would be impossible, as some time might be required in securing another judge to serve.

He Didn't Fit the Water.
A jolly old steamboat captain with more spirit than height was asked if he had ever had any very narrow escapes.

"Yes," he replied, his eyes twinkling, "once I fell off my boat at the mouth of Bear creek, and, although I'm an expert swimmer, I guess I'd been there now if it hadn't been for my crew. You see the water was just deep enough so to be over my head when I tried to wade out, and just shallow enough," he gave his body an explanatory jig, "so that whenever I tried to swim out I dragged bottom." Everybody's.

Trouble-makers are as plentiful as peacemakers are scarce.

SOFT, GLOSSY HAIR.

It Can Only Be Had Where There Is No Dandruff.

Any man or woman who wants soft, glossy hair must be free of dandruff, which causes falling hair. Since it has become known that dandruff is a germ disease, the old hair preparations that were mostly soap and brimstone, have been abandoned, and the public, buyers and doctors, included, have taken to using Newbro's Herpicide, the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ. E. Dodd, Dickinson, N. D., says: "Herpicide not only cleanses the scalp from dandruff and prevents the hair falling out, but promotes a new growth. Herpicide keeps my hair very glossy. Sold by leading druggists. Two sizes, 50c and $1 bottles. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. W. B. McPherson, Special Agent."

TAKEN FROM PENITENTIARY, TO ATTEND SON'S FUNERAL.

Old Friends Stand Loyal By us Iowa Father Weeps at Bier.

Port Madison, Iowa, July 25.—For the first time in 10 years William Adams, the prisoner in the Port Madison penitentiary, saw the world outside the prison bars as he was hurried back to his old home at Lake Umbagog to attend the funeral of his eldest son, says a special dispatch to the Port Madison Capital.

A mere child at the time the father was taken away, he beheld the dead body of his boy grown almost to manhood, and wept piteously as he bent over the lifeless form.

Old friends and neighbors stood patiently and sympathetically aside as with bear form and hunched head, the father followed the body to the little lot in the cemetery and saw it lowered into the grave. Then they crowded about him and silently shook his hand.

Hardly a word was spoken, and soon the aged man was speeding back to again take up his dreary round behind the penitentiary walls.

IN LOUISVILLE.

Misfortunes of poor Billy Semolin, removed county clerk of Jefferson county, if he is guilty of the conversion of $50,000 of the state's funds, will furnish a text for much preaching, and, yet, the circumstances point directly to a particular instance of a too weak man, entrusted with public funds—or a bad selection, rather than a condition of affairs. Only incidentally does the case point a political moral, the bad effect of a party machine entrenched behind a big majority. Mayhap the unfortunate official was convinced Louisville would always remain Democratic, and so long as he was loyal to its interests, he could do as he pleased with his office, overlooking the fact that there is a city machine and a state machine, local courts and state courts.

Unquestionably, if "Billy" Semolin used these funds, as alleged, he expected to pay them back. That is ever the way of the moral weakling. He uses trust funds in his private business, confident that he can replace them with the profits of the venture. But the man, who has not sufficient judgment to leave other people's money alone, seldom has judgment enough to make a good investment.

Such conditions and such men are produced under machine domination. Political machines need weak men who can be handled. In Louisville conditions have been bettered by the removal of the corruptly elected Democratic office holders, because any change would have been an improvement; but it is only the substitution of one machine for another and we are of the opinion that the new alliance is worse than the old. The Kohn-Wallen faction, long since discredited, has ridden in on the tide that engulfed the Haldeeman-Grainger regime, and while sympathizing with the state administration in state politics, these men are playing the Louisville situation to fasten their own control on affairs. There is only one salvation for Louisville this fall, and the Republicans of the Falls City, by their good sense in making it a straight party fight, are offering the city the opportunity.

After reciting the romantic story, which found its way the round of the press, about an Octoroon, who was a leader of society in Chicago University, the Chicago Tribune manifests its greatness by apologizing for publication of the story which was a fake, and this without any complaint being made to it. We have yet to hear apologies from anybody for publishing the story of the Japanese admiral who was sketching fortifications on the Pacific coast. Perhaps, though, somebody got "fired."

Col. Will S. Hays has gone to join "Uncle Sam" Emmett; but "Dixie" lives on, its stirring strains never failing to thrill with a potency all their own.

Reports from the state Republican central committee indicate that the Ohio situation may be withdrawn from the consideration of The Hague conference.

That congressional junketing committee could have saved time and money by coming to Paducah and inquiring about immigration.

After some 48 hours' neglect of the subject, the News-Democrat last evening revived its interest in the Boyle case sufficiently to devote over a half column to interviews with attorneys concerning what the attorneys believed Judge Reed, of the circuit court, had practically decided in the case, and what those attorneys would do in case Judge Reed should admit certain pleadings. Waiving a natural curiosity as to the purpose of the article, we have two suggestions to offer—the circuit court is located in Paducah, not over six blocks from any newspaper office, and its sessions are public; the best way to get news of the proceedings in that court is to send a reporter to the court. If we desired to know what attitude Judge Reed had assumed toward a particular issue, we should interview Judge Reed, rather than an advocate for either side.

Paducah is performing a patriotic duty. The whole immigration problem will be solved by the distribution of the immigrants throughout the country, so that they may be brought under American influences.

The Hague is not a hotel, as might be inferred from the fact that it has adopted the American plan exclusively.

The Rev. F. W. Hawley is evidently a man, who knows when he is whipped.

Attorneys for Haywood are vehement in their declarations that Harry Orchard is a liar and a murderer. Thus far they corroborate Orchard's own testimony.

The Sun indorses the action of the members of the board of public works in protesting against the manner in which First street is blocked to traffic by the railroad tracks. The tracks should conform to the grade and they should be filled in. The river traffic of Paducah is constantly increasing and wharfage is now scarcely sufficient for the trade. With Kentucky avenue wantonly blocked, hauling is hampered, and there is no excuse for such a total disregard of the rights of the public. We trust the board of public works will now proceed to compel whoever is responsible to put those tracks in proper condition, so that the rights of other people to travel on First street may be equally recognized with that of the railroad.

Between railroad wreck, steamboat catastrophes and balloon accidents, the angel of death is reaping dividends from all the transportation lines of earth, sea and sky.

Fortunately, the Republican ticket in Paducah this fall requires no defense.

Lieutenant Colonel Ayres complains that other men of his rank less fit than he, are unmolested, while he is ordered before the medical board and retired. But Col. Ayres must remember that the wives of the other officers have not attracted the attention of the department to the deficiencies.

After roasting him to a "frazzle," because he is a Republican, the Kentucky State Journal says of Capt. Ed Farley:

"While personally a genial, clever gentleman, he offers to the independent voter no attractions not possessed by the Democratic nominee, and therefore nothing can be urged in his favor."

Vanity is the quality that makes woman make her mirror convince her that she is pretty.

Makes Institute More Attractive and Broader

Hon. William Marble Addressed the County Teachers at Session This Morning.

WILL GET THROUGH ON TIME.

Numerous addresses before the McCracken County Teachers' institute have taken up much time, but it is not begrudged. The institute has been made the better by reason of the features, and each day's program will have one or more speakers. It infuses interest and causes thought along lines different from those suggested by the work mapped out. While a majority of the addresses bore directly on some class of education, other suggestions awakening discussions have resulted not aimed at in the regular course of study.

The institute is by far the most successful ever held. The instructor believes that he will catch up with the program today, and no night sessions will be necessary. The volume of work to be done at first suggested night sessions, but the dispatch exhibited in the work showed clearly that day sessions would be sufficient.

Morning Session.

The fourth morning session opened with devotional services by Miss May Ellis. Miss Annabelle Ayer followed with a piano solo, and County Superintendent S. J. Hillington followed Miss Ayer with a vocal solo. His song was greatly enjoyed.

Discipline.

The subject "Discipline" was taken up this morning. It was presented and discussed first by Instructor T. J. Coates. Discussions of sub-topics followed:

"Force of Example," G. Tyree.

"Happiness and Contentment as Factors," Clifton Reeves.

"Positive Moral Exercise," E. B. Jett.

"Proper Incentives," D. E. Wilson.

"Specific School Offenses," Bertha Boaz.

"Teation of Discipline to Professional Success," W. T. Harrison.

"Interest and Discontent," R. B. Kirkpatrick.

Geography.

Yesterday afternoon Geography was discussed thoroughly.

"First and Second Year," E. B. Jett and Ruble Knott.

"How to Introduce the Text Book," George Orr.

"Order of Presenting Facts," K. Finley.

"Climate, How to Teach," S. J. Hillington.

The work was suspended temporarily and Hon. William Marble addressed the institute. He talked on education and how to interest the public mind in the work. His talk was highly instructive and suggestive of many departures from the usual custom of school management.

History.

"The German Method of Teaching," J. W. Hughes.

"Facts in Teaching," R. B. Kirkpatrick.

"How Primary and Advanced Differ," J. J. Miller.

This afternoon's session began at 2 o'clock with a musical feature, Superintendent Hillington leading in singing. Following the opening County Attorney Alben Barkley spoke briefly to the teachers on educational lines.

At this afternoon's session Dr. John McKinney, Jr., of England, will address the institute on Physiology

AID FOR BACKWARD PUPILS.

"No Grade Classes" Under Tutorial System to Be Established for Deaf and Public School Students.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 25.—To assist backward students of the public schools and enable them to keep up with their classes the elementary school committee of the board of education authorized the establishment of what will be known as "no grade classes."

These will be tried in the Randall school, at Ninth and Bainbridge streets, and the Wharton school, at Fifth street and Washington avenue. Students who have fallen behind by absence or some other unavoidable cause, as well as those mentally deficient in certain branches, will be transferred from their classes and placed under the personal supervision of the teacher in charge of the "no grade classes." She will be obliged to give each pupil special attention, and in this manner the board hopes to overcome the difficulty that has always been experienced by teachers in the foreign settlements, where English particularly retards the progress.

The "tutorial system" as the special classes will eventually become, has been tried in a number of schools and the great success has led to the establishment of the classes. Dr. Brunnhaugh is strongly in favor of the new work, and it was on his recommendation chiefly that the board acted. Work will begin in September, and, if beneficial in the two schools selected, will be established throughout the city.

A committee was appointed to confer with Attorney General Todd and City Solicitor Gendell regarding the refusal of the department of factory inspection at Harrisburg to supply their board of education with blanks to be filled in by students taking advantage of the age limit to leave school.

Summer Drinks.

Warm weather naturally leads to thirst. Let the latter be satisfied by pure, wholesome drinks. Homemade lemonade is one of the very best. Barley water is excellent; so also are orangeade, grape juice and the juices of other fruits, diluted with water and slightly sweetened. Distilled water is a very wholesome drink and absolutely safe. Free drinking of pure water is helpful in keeping the system in good running order. Children should be encouraged to drink freely; preferably, however, between meals. A drink is also in order the first thing in the morning and the last thing at night.—Good Health.

Agreement Reached.

Rock Island, Ill., July 25.—The strike inaugurated a week ago, by the earmen in the shops of the Rock Island system, was settled today. The men returned to work. An agreement was reached whereby the grievances are to be admitted to arbitration. Over 1,100 men had quit work.

DARROW'S VOICE

RAISED AGAINST CULTURE, EDUCATION AND WEALTH.

Denounces Constitution in His Impassioned Defense of Hay.

Holse, Idaho, July 25.—The career of Frank Steunenberg, the murdered governor of Idaho, was discussed at length this afternoon by Clarence Darrow in his plea in behalf of William D. Haywood, justifying the articles published in the Miners' Magazine, the official organ of the Western Federation of Miners. Darrow said the actions of Steunenberg in asking for United States troops to quell the riot and the establishment of martial law in 1899 was unjustifiable and properly stirred up intense feeling in labor circles against the governor.

Darrow's argument developed into an appeal for labor as against capital, and a denunciation of opposition to union culture, education and wealth were described as constituting a combination against workmen; the uneducated and poor must be ever protected said Darrow, and he sneered at universities. "And what is a cultured man," he cried, "but a cruel tyrant always."

Reaching the climax of sympathy for the working class and hatred for the rich, he assailed the constitution of the country and cried: "The constitution! The constitution! It is here only to destroy laws made for the benefit of the poor."

HOT WEATHER SUGGESTIONS.

Every chance acquaintance, these hot days, can tell you what to do to keep well and cool, but the safest advice is keep close to Nature.

Nature says don't drink very much ice water—use the tempered water.

Don't eat heating dishes, warm meats, and heavy vegetables, but confine yourselves to light vegetables and fruits, and cold meats.

Nature, also, says, and be injunctive in strong terms, to keep the system in good condition, the liver, bowels, stomach, kidneys and skin at every one contributes to health or ill health.

Osteopathy is Nature's treatment, and the most rational for all diseases, especially the ailments incident to hot weather. Those weak, tired out and run-down conditions; dull headaches; disturbed bowel conditions, and torpid liver yield quickly to its application.

But, let me tell you any time, of people you know well, who will cheerfully tell you what Osteopathy has done and is doing for them. That is unjudged evidence and will appeal to you. Dr. G. H. Proake, 516 Broadway, upstairs, Phone 1407.

RAILROAD NOTES

John Hollan, manager of the Paducah Independent base, team, and an employee of the night round house, in the Illinois Central shops, had a narrow escape from serious injury this morning. When Hollan left his shop to go home he waited at the street corner and Broadway for a car. The car was slow down, Hollan was leaning over the side of the car and did not swing quick enough. Coming to the hand he was dragged over the side of the car and his head was struck on the track, and his watch was smashed.

One good turn deserves another, and when a steamboat recently transferred a locomotive from the Kentucky to the Illinois side of the Ohio river, railroad men looked for some steamboat work. This morning it came on a big flat car in the shape of a shaft of a large steamboat, broken in two. It presents an opportunity for a demonstration of welding and will be welded under the supervision of Mr. Jerome Smith, foreman of the blacksmith shop, who has won a reputation for this particular class of work. No papers have been ready to show from what boat the shaft came.

Engineer John Malvin, of Paducah, saved a deaf mute from death under his engine wheels at Cairo last evening as the Cairo-Paducah accommodation train was leaving Cairo. When the engine was gaining speed a man of past middle age walked out into the tracks, grip in hand and back toward the approaching train. Malvin signaled, but the stranger paid no attention to it. Emergency brakes were applied, and the train stopped a few feet from the man. He proved to be a deaf mute.

There is more engine work in the Paducah Illinois Central shops today than there has been for many months. Not a stall in the machine shops is vacant, and the round house was "ful up" this morning. So many engines have been sent here for repairs that several have stood for days on sidings, waiting to be run into either the round house or machine shops. One engine which had to be gotten out at once, was placed on the transfer table and lacked to the shop, repairing shed.

A car day brought three resignations in the machine shops, and this morning three new men were put on to fill the vacancies. The force in the mechanical department is now full, and no extra men will be put on unless in unlooked for emergencies.

Supt. A. H. Egan and Roadmaster A. F. Haas, of the Louisville division of the Illinois Central, are in the city on an inspection.

Paducah will be visited today or tomorrow by Mr. William Renshaw, superintendent of machinery of the Illinois Central, and his assistant, Mr. Joseph Baker. The officials are now at Memphis on an inspection, and will reach here this week. Local officials have seen to the cleaning of the shops before the higher officials arrive.

Master Mechanic R. E. Frimer, of the Illinois Central, has returned from Memphis, where he yesterday attended a monthly meeting of mechanical officials.

Mr. Fred McCreary, the Illinois

Central tank car, is in George Winford, acting supervisor of the Illinois Central railroad on the Tennessee division between Dyersburg and Memphis, fell from the rear of south bound passenger train in charge of Conductor Frank Wheeler at 9 o'clock yesterday morning as the train was turning a sharp curve one mile north of Brighton and sustained injuries which caused almost instant death. Mr. Winford for many years had charge of the Brighton section of the Illinois Central, and was acting supervisor during the absence of H. L. Hazgrave, who is off duty on a leave of absence. Winford was about 37 years of age.

Ben West, of Jackson, Tenn., a fireman on the Illinois Central, was brought to the railroad hospital here last night with both knees bruised. He had cooled his engine at Dyersburg, Tenn., and was standing on the ground when several large lumps of coal fell and struck his knees.

THE THREAD TRESE.

As anticipated, the dogs of war in the trade have been let loose to fight about the price of a spool of thread. It will be remembered that the price was advanced on May 29 to 67¢ per dozen, less a discount of 7 per cent within 10 days. A cash discount of 1 per cent in 30 days or 2 per cent in 10 days from date of invoice. It allowed. Customers are guaranteed against loss on stock on hand and in transit by any change in price made by the seller. The retail selling price was advanced at the same time from 5 to 6 cents per spool of 200 yards.

So strong were some of the objections that the Spool Cotton company, whose offices are on White street, sent out a circular June 27 to its customers, explaining why the advance was made. The circular read: "In answer to inquiries as to the reason why the price of various makes and grades of spool cotton sold by us have been made because of the increase in the cost of manufacturing. Since 1899, when the former price was adopted, the kind of cotton used in the spool cotton we sell has advanced in cost 134 per cent, labor per capita 21 per cent, coal 22 per cent, spools 11 per cent, and general supplies 119 per cent. Under the circumstances we trust our customers will appreciate that the increase in our prices has not been unreasonable or arbitrary, and that it has been caused solely by the increased cost of manufacturing.—Journal of Commerce.

Not His Ducks.

A story is told of the famous Richard Hirsley Sheridan that one day when coming back from shooting, with an empty bag, and seeing a number of ducks in a pond, while nearby in man was leaning on a fence watching him, Sheridan asked: "What will you take for a shot at the ducks?" "Well," said the man, thoughtfully, "I'll take half a sovereign." "None," said Sheridan, and he fired into the middle of the flock, killing a dozen or more. "I'm afraid you made a bad bargain," said Sheridan, laughing. "I don't know about that," the man replied, "They're not my ducks."

Commissioner Warner Complains That Stepmother Had Negro Blood

Paris, July 25.—In spite of the fact Commissioner of Pensions Vespasian Warner, one of the prominent members of President Roosevelt's official family and a leading politician of Illinois for 30 years, has gone into court here and sworn that his stepmother, Mrs. Isabella Robinson Warner, is of negro blood. The climax in the Warner will case, in which the commissioner of pensions is vitally interested as an heir of the late John Warner, came today with the filing by the respondents of an amended answer, making the startling charge.

The estate of John Warner, who was Commissioner Warner's father, is valued at nearly $2,000,000, and the widow is fighting for her dower rights. Vespasian Warner, who is executor, alleges that an antenuptial agreement made by Isabella Robinson Warner, later Mrs. John Warner, and his father stands in the way of the widow's claims, and that furthermore his stepmother deceived his father by concealing from him the fact that she was part negro.

In support of this charge the attorneys for the commissioner of pensions have secured various depositions from all parts of the United States, but principally in and around Newark, where Stephen Robinson, father of Mrs. Warner, originally resided. These depositions are sworn to by various citizens who claim they were intimately acquainted with Stephen Robinson, and always understood he was part negro. Mr. Robinson was a former and is said to have been of swarthy complexion.

WAS RIGHT SMITH WHEN WAGON CAME

Assailant of Pete Gibson Now in the Toils

Victim Says Crap Game Was Going on When Colored Men Approached the Group.

SMITH WAS ORDERED TO LEAVE.

James Smith, colored, charged with maliciously shooting Fireman Pete Gibson at Wallace park on July 4 was arrested yesterday afternoon between 1 and 2 o'clock at 1040 Kentucky avenue, a residence formerly occupied by Ida Eastwood. He was lying in bed upstairs when Patrolmen Lige Cross and William Johnson went up and arrested him. "My name is Charlie Smith, and I am the wrong man," he declared, when being taken downstairs. However, when he got into the patrol wagon, he admitted he was the right "Smith," and stated that he got hit by not a Gibson, but that if he struck anyone, he did not know it.

Police yesterday received a tip that Smith had returned to town. They located him, and Chief Collins sent Patrolmen Orr Carter, Jones and Hill to surround the house and prevent escape. Patrolman Kirk, an Illinois special agent, volunteered to assist, and stood guard with the patrolmen.

Smith stated that after the shooting he left Paducah and went to Nortonville, where the chief of police arrested him, took his pistol, and gave him an hour to leave town. He claimed he had been shot at twice since, but only yesterday returned to Paducah. His trial is set for tomorrow in police court.

Fireman Gibson's statement.

The first authentic statement given out concerning the shooting was secured from Fireman Pete Gibson this morning. He has nearly fully recovered, and will leave the hospital in a few days. His statement follows:

"There were two crap games going on back of the park. I was not playing but a mere looker on. All players were white, and when Jones Smith and two smaller negroes walked up, my Merriam, another fireman, told them to leave, that negroes were not allowed in the park. A few hot words followed. Merriam picked up a stick and the negro said: 'You will not hit me.' Merriam broke the stick in half and threw one-half at Smith, who dodged. When Smith arose he had the gun in his hand. Raising it he fired, and I received the bullet."

Congressman Burton May Resign From Rivers and Harbors Place

A good deal of interest has been aroused here by the report that when the Sixtieth congress convenes, Representative Theodore Burton, of Ohio, will resign the chairmanship of the house committee on rivers and harbors. Mr. Burton has been at the head of this important committee through several congresses. He has made a good record in the place, and also has made a choice collection of enemies.

When Mr. Burton succeeded to the chairmanship, the rivers and harbors pork barrel was the fattest thing congress had. The annual bill always was constructed by the log-rolling process, and it was loaded up with jobs and deals of every description. The thing worked after this fashion: Congressmen Pull was a member of the rivers and harbors committee. He didn't want any river and harbor appropriations, but it would help him a lot if he could secure a federal building in a certain town that had no federal business to justify it. Congressman Push was a member of the committee on public buildings and grounds. He had all the federal buildings he could use, but he did need an appropriation to improve Mud creek in order to retain his seat in congress. So Pull and Push got together; Pull got his federal building and Push got his money for Mud creek.

With the advent of Burton all this was changed. The improving of rivers and harbors was reduced to a systematic business basis, and anyone seeking an appropriation now has to "show" Burton and his committee. Naturally this policy has not proved to the liking of a great many of Mr. Burton's colleagues, and his popularity has suffered.

According to report, however, this is not the main reason why Mr. Burton wishes to resign the chairmanship. He is greatly interested in the work of the inland waterways commission, of which he is a member, and wishes to devote more time to it.

CONGO REFORM

IS PROMISED THROUGH AGREEMENT OF BELGIANS.

King Leopold To Be Shorn of His Arbitrary Powers and Outrages
To Cease in Africa.

Brussels, July 25.—The close of King Leopold's long struggle to save off the annexation of the Congo colony to Belgium, and to retain personal sovereignty over the rich African state is now followed. In the agreement reached July 12 between Belgium and the Congo government, elaborating terms upon which the latter will pass to Belgium. The transfer will mark an important epoch for the Congo as heretofore the civil and military affairs have been under the personal direction of King Leopold, and a regime of Congo officers independent of Belgium. The new regime will make the Belgian government responsible. England and America have favored this.

When Belgium was created in 1830, the Belgians colonies were not far from no provisions were made in the constitution for colonial administration. Belgian Royalists (Conservatives, Clericals and a fraction of Moderates) went a law to convert the present Congo administration into an autonomous government, not responsible to parliament. Liberals and radicals also desire Congo autonomy, but insist that unless the administration is made responsible to the Belgian parliament it will in no way correct present abuses. In other words the humanitarian reasons which now exist for annexation would be defeated.

Indications are the subject will be threshed out in parliament during the fall.

Society's Favorite Flower.
Whatever the shortcomings of the "400" members of this over-advertised body cannot be charged with neglect of flowers. It is a hopeful sign in a woman to find her fond of flowers and women of the "400" seldom have been seen in a happier light than at present, when they are engaged in rivalry over the cultivation of dahlias.

The dahlia is a common plant in Europe. In many parts growing wild it is a rare plant in this country, and it belongs almost exclusively to the hot house. It has been developed in a variety of colors and forms. There is some doubt as to the one who receives the credit for the sudden growth in popularity of the plant. The Vanderbilts conservatories are now stocked with it. Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt has marked the dahlia as her favorite flower, and so with Mrs. Clarence Mackay. Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney is another lover of the dahlia, chiefly because of its rainbow tints and its rare value for decorative purposes.

Mrs. Mackay seems to have the lead in the friendly rivalry just now for she has a dozen plants of truly surpassing beauty. The hearts of the flowers are of variegated brown, with the long, soft, golden petals tapering off to white. The secret of the variety belongs alone to Mrs. Mackay and the Mackay horticulturist and the Mackay country place in Roslyn finds an adornment even more alluring than the dahlia effects in the Vanderbilts and Whitney homes.
